Dear Mr. Rasini:

With further reference to your letter of 1 May regarding personnel of this Agency who are delinquent in income tax payments and my interim letter of 11 May, attached is a report of action taken in each case.

If these arrangements are not satisfactory, or if there is any difficulty in connection with promised installment payments, please let us know and we will make every effort to see that this matter is settled to your complete satisfaction.

Sincerely,

Sloane

Mr. A. Parks Masin
Assistant to Collector
Washington Division Office
Internal Revenue Service
Room 1002, Internal Revenue Building
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Masin:

I have received your letter of 4 May relative to employees of this Agency who are delinquent in payment of federal income taxes, and requesting our assistance in collection.

Each of the individuals will be contacted personally and an effort made to effect payment at an early date of the delinquent amounts. We will also follow up this matter, and I will inform you next month as to the reported results of our efforts.

I appreciate your bringing this matter to my personal attention.

Sincerely,
